By M. ELLEN EDWARDS :

"And what did you see?" groaned Lucy. "Speak up. I insist upon knowing!"

"Must it go on with us for ever?"

"Oh, Emma," implored Annie, in deep agitation, "tell the truth. You know it cannot be hidden always."

Hester's attention was attracted by a young man not far behind, whose gaze was fixed upon the wedding party with an intensity remarkable to behold.

"I have been avowing to your aunt how matters stand," he said.

"And shall you come again—other nights?"
